

KWA ZULU NATAL COAST ANGLERS' UNION

CONSTITUTION

INTRODUCTORY

1. In view of the unity in sport in South Africa generally and the formation of one controlling body for shore angling, in particular, the Natal Anglers and Casters Association and the Natal Coast Anglers Union merged on the seventeenth day of April 1994 to form a single controlling body for angling in KwaZulu Natal. This body shall be the sole representative of competitive shore angling for the Province.

NAME

2. The name of the Association is the KWAZULU NATAL COAST ANGLERS UNION; and is hereinafter referred to as the UNION.

CONSTITUTION

3. The UNION consists of Member Clubs, such Clubs having their respective headquarters in the Province of KwaZulu Natal, and between the rivers Umtamvuma in KwaZulu Natal and Bashee in the Cape Province. The UNION shall ensure that its member Clubs adhere to the principles of non-racialism and non-sexism, and shall accept members irrespective of their race, colour, creed or religion.

COLOURS AND BADGES

The UNION shall adopt colours as well as badges of the lapel and pocket types, as marks of distinction. The colours shall be black and white. There shall be two badges, namely:

A MEMBER'S BADGE which shall be circular in shape, have a black background and the inscription shall be in white. A suitable fish shall be placed within the circle with rays drawn as the background. Below the circle will be a ribbon in which will be inscribed the name of the UNION. This badge may be worn by any member and in addition shall be awarded to Executive members upon their election and to any member for meritorious services rendered. The inscription "Executive" or "Honours" as the case may be, shall be inscribed below the ribbon, together with the year in which the award was made.

A REPRESENTATIVE TEAM BADGE which shall be two rampant wildebeest inscribed in white on a black background. Above the wildebeest the word "KwaZulu Natal" shall be inscribed and below the wildebeest the words, "Shore Angling" shall be inscribed. If the awardee is the Manager of the team, the word, "Manager" shall be inscribed as well. This badge shall only be awarded to representative team members competing in Inter-Provincial Tournaments other than Tournaments considered by the Executive Committee to be "Friendly" Tournaments.

OBJECTS

4. The objects and functions of the UNION shall be:-
 - (a) To be the governing body of its member Clubs and to administer the sport of amateur shore angling and casting amongst its Clubs.
 - (b) To maintain and foster the best traditions of amateur shore angling and casting.
 - (c) To define the status of amateur shore angling anglers of its member Clubs and to do whatever may be necessary or expedient to maintain and uphold the same.
 - (d) To further the rights, interest, or status, of amateur shore angling anglers in general.
 - (e) To make and enforce rules and regulations and conditions governing the sport of amateur shore angling and casting in all its branches, and all matters pertaining thereto, including the nomination of individuals and election of teams.
 - (f) To arrange and settle dates, places and other details, of inter-club and other competitions.
 - (g) To affiliate with, or to, any other body having objects in any way similar to these objects, in the Republic of South Africa or elsewhere, including, inter alia, national bodies.
 - (h) To join with any such body in carrying out of objects in any way similar to these objects, and to participate in inter-provincial, national and international contests or competitions, and to control the award of Provincial Badges and Colours to members selected to represent it in such competitions.
 - (i) To administer, manage, and control, funds or property for the purpose of any of these objects.
 - (j) To collect, canvass for and to accept subscriptions, donations, bequests, endowments and benefits of any nature for the UNION from any source whatsoever, and to borrow or raise money or secure payment thereof with or without security.
 - (k) To invest the funds and assets of the UNION in securities or investments selected by the Executive Committee.
 - (l) To acquire by purchase, lease, donation, bequest or any other mode of acquisition both movable and immovable property, but the acquisition of immovable property shall be subject to the approval of a majority of members properly represented at a general meeting.
 - (m) To sell, donate, exchange, partition or dispose of by any mode of alienation, movable and immovable property, but the alienation of immovable property shall be subject to the approval of a majority of members properly represented at a general meeting.
 - (n) ~~To create and issue debentures to persons who are members of member Clubs of the UNION and to mortgage the immovable property of the UNION to secure such debentures only, but issue of such debentures or registration of such mortgages shall only be done with the approval of a majority of members properly represented at a General Meeting.~~¹
 - (o) To carry out the business of the UNION in accordance with the foregoing objects, including the raising of funds pursuant to the Fund Raising Act No 107 of 1978 or any amendment thereof, within the area defined in Clause 3 above.

LEGAL POSITION OF THE UNION

The UNION is not formed for the purpose of carrying on any business that has for its object the acquisition of gain by its members.

The UNION is only liable for its own debts and any assistance granted to any other person or body shall not render it liable for the debts of such other person or body.

The UNION may sue and be sued in its own name in any Court of Law and any processes of law shall be regarded as validly served on the UNION if served on the President personally, who shall, however, not be personally liable for any loss suffered.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

6. There shall be elected and confirmed at each Annual General Meeting an Executive Committee consisting of:
- (a) Confirmation of The President as described in section 5 (a)
 - (b) Vice-President, Immediate Past President (if in office), Honorary Secretary, Honorary Treasurer, Honorary Competition Secretary, Fish Classification and Records Officer Transformation and Development officer, Conservation Officer, athlete's Representative and the Convenor of the Technical Committee.
 - (c) Five additional members.
- Nominations in writing for (a) (b) and (c) hereof shall be received by the Honorary Secretary 40 days before the AGM in each year.

The Executive Committee shall hold office until its successor is elected. Member Clubs shall be entitled to nominate not more than two members to the Executive Committee of whom only one may be a member of their own Club.

7. The Executive Committee shall, unless a General Meeting be in session, represent and act for and on behalf of the UNION in all matters and for all purposes, and inter alia:
- (a) Hold in trust all assets and property of the UNION.
 - (b) Fix dates and places (1) of General Meetings; (2) of Meetings of the Executive Committee; (3) for respective Competitions.
 - (c) Adjudicate upon all matters referred to it for decision in connection with the interpretation of any application of this Constitution, and/or of any Rule or Rules framed thereunder, or of any resolution passed by a General Meeting or by the Executive Committee.
 - (d) Decide upon any matter of or affecting the qualifications or eligibility of, any person to become or to be, a member of any Member Club. The decision of the Executive Committee shall be final and there shall be no appeal therefrom. The Committee shall not give or be required to give any ground or reason for such decisions.
 - (e) Hear and decide appeals by any individual member of a Member Club, against any decision by such Club of a disciplinary nature or affecting his amateur status.
 - (f) Take such disciplinary action as may at any time seem to it to be necessary or desirable, in respect of any Member Club or individual member of any such Club.
 - (g) Pass such sentences or inflict such penalties for any breach of this Constitution or any Rules or Regulations framed thereunder, or any offence against the traditions or objects of the UNION, as may appear to it to be just and proper.
 - (h) Transact all such business and do all acts and things not inconsistent with this Constitution, as may in its opinion be necessary or expedient for the proper conduct and management of the business and affairs of the UNION, or the carrying out of any of its objects.
 - (i) The Executive Committee shall have power to:
 - (i) Appoint a sub-committee for any special object and delegate to such sub-committee the functions and powers of the Executive Committee.
 - (ii) Fill any vacancy which may occur on the Committee including ex-officio members of the Committee.
 - (iii) Officers, members of the Executive Committee, the Secretary, the Competition Secretary, the Treasurer, and Auditors, shall respectively be indemnified against all liability incurred by them in the execution of their duties, save such as they shall incur through their own neglect or default.

MEMBER CLUBS

8. (a) Member Clubs shall:-
- (i) Have a constitution in writing, not inconsistent with this constitution, and approved by the UNION through its Executive Committee.
 - (ii) Keep in good financial standing in the UNION.
 - (iii) Maintain a membership of not less than 15 members other than Non-competitive Members as defined in clause 18 Bis. If such Club has been a member for 10 years or more, its membership may fall below 15, but in such event none of its members may be registered as Non-competitive Members. Member Clubs of less than 10 years standing shall be given a period of 12 months to rectify the position should their membership fall below 15 members. The foregoing provisions shall not apply to Non-competitive Clubs, as defined in clause 18 (Bis).
- (b) Any Member Club two months in arrears with payment of any money due by it to the UNION may, by resolution of the Executive Committee be given notice in writing to pay such arrears within a period not exceeding thirty days; and, if in default at the expiration of such period, may, by Resolution of the Executive Committee or of a General Meeting, be expelled from the UNION.
- (c) A Club having ceased to be a Member Club by resignation shall not within 10 years after resignation again become a Member Club under the same title and/or with substantially the same office bearers as it had upon resignation. A Club that has been expelled shall not again be admitted to membership and its members as at the date of expulsion shall not without the authority of the Executive Committee of the UNION be admitted to membership of any Member Club.
- (d) No Member Club shall without the authority by a resolution of a General Meeting or of the Executive Committee, accept as a member, any person suspended or expelled by a General Meeting or by the Executive Committee.
- (e) No Club may become a Member Club, any part of whose title, except the words "Angler" or "Angling" coincides or clashes with any part of the name of the UNION and accordingly shall not contain any one or more of the words "KwaZulu Natal" "Coast", "Association", "Union", unless such Club was already a member on 1st January, 1994.
- (f) NEW MEMBER CLUBS: Every application by a Club to become a Member Club shall be made in writing addressed to the Honorary Secretary of the UNION, and accompanied by:-
- (i) a certified copy of the applicant's constitution;
 - (ii) a list of the names and addresses of all its members, of whom there shall not be less than fifteen;
 - (iii) a deposit of the amount of its entrance fee, first year's subscription, and registration fees for all its members.
 - (iv) The receipt from a Club of its application for membership shall be notified to all Member Clubs by means of the minutes of the next meeting of the Executive Committee, and any Member Club may communicate to the Executive committee any objection to, or comment upon, the application.
- At its next following meeting, the Executive Committee shall consider the application, with any objections thereto or comments thereon, and may either -
- (i) call for further information; or
 - (ii) accept or reject the application; or
 - (iii) refer it to the next General Meeting for decision; or
 - (iv) accept or reject it subject to confirmation by the next General Meeting.
 - (v) No representations to or negotiations with any public authority or body, or any persons or body of persons, shall be made or carried on in the name or on behalf of, the UNION without the authority of a General Meeting or of the Executive Committee; and accordingly, nothing of that kind shall be done by any Member Club or any officer or member thereof, except under specific authority of a resolution of a General Meeting or of the Executive Committee.

INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS

9. (a) Every individual member shall be an amateur angler as hereinafter defined.
- (i) Junior members be divided into two groups namely under 16's (Juniors) and under 21's (Youth).
Members of 16 years and under shall be juniors members (under 16's) up and until the 31st December of the year in which they turn 16.
Members of 21 years or under, but older than 16 years shall be youth members (under 21's) until the 31st December of the year in which they turn 21.
Children of members shall automatically be regarded as junior members (under 16's) of the Club of which their parent is a member, without the necessity of paying a fee to that Club. All other juniors shall be obliged to pay a fee to the Club to qualify for membership.
Junior members shall be entitled to all privileges of ordinary members of the UNION provided they are fee paying members.
- (b) No member of any Member Club shall be regarded as in good standing in his/her own Club or Clubs, if he/she has not, on or before the thirty-first day of March in each year, paid his/her annual subscriptions for that year to all Clubs of which he/she is a member.
- (i) No member of any Member Club shall accept or receive any KwaZulu Natal Provincial or South African colours or badges for Angling or Casting from any body other than this UNION, the South African Shore Angling Association or any member union thereof. Any member contravening the provisions of this section shall be struck off the roll of any Member Club of which he may be a Member.
- (c) No member of any Competitive Member Club shall be eligible to take part in any competition for a trophy vested in the UNION, unless such member shall have paid to all Competitive Member Clubs of which he/she is a member, the annual subscription due to every such Club for the current year. Any infringement of the terms of this section shall disqualify the Club on whose behalf the offender has actually participated in any UNION competition during the year.
- (d) All members of Member Clubs who have not paid, on or before the thirtieth day of May in each or any year, all subscriptions due by them shall within seven days or such date, be reported in writing to the UNION by the Member Clubs concerned. Immediately upon receipt of such report by the Honorary Secretary of the UNION, all such members shall be suspended from membership of the union for the period ending on the thirty-first day of December of such year; and their names shall forthwith be struck off the UNION Register. Such member or members, however shall, at the discretion of the Executive Committee, be eligible for re-registration as from the first day of January of the year immediately following, conditional on all due arrear payments being made, and reported as having been made by the Member Club or Clubs concerned. The conditions as laid down in this section, shall in no way alter or amend the position in respect of Sections (b) and (c) of this section of the Constitution.
- (e) Each Member Club shall notify the UNION of all members struck off membership of the Club within thirty days of each striking-off.

- (f) The Executive Committee shall deal with any application for reinstatement, and any application by any person applying for amateur status; and may grant or refuse the same. Every such application shall be made to the Executive Committee through a Member Club prepared to accept the applicant as a member.
- (g) No member who is a member of more than one Competitive Member Club shall fish for more than one Competitive Member Club in any one UNION year in the same category of Inter-Club Competitions (i.e. Postal or Common Venue) unless he shall have resigned from the Club for which he first fished in that year in that category of Competition.
- (h) Within a month of a member joining a Member Club, such Club shall register such member with the UNION, by means of the prescribed registration form duly complemented and signed, accompanied by the payment of the prescribed registration fee.
- (i) The Secretary of each Member Club shall ascertain whether each applicant for membership of his Club:-
 - (i) is or has been a member of any other Member Club and, if so, that the applicant is not otherwise than in good standing in such other Club or Clubs;
 - (ii) is or has been a member of any Club, or association - other than a Member Club - connected with angling in any way whatsoever, and not conforming to the definition of amateur angling as defined in this Constitution or any interpretation or construction thereof by a General Meeting or a resolution of the Executive Committee.
- (j) Every application by any person who is or has been a member of any such Club or association shall be referred by the Member Club concerned, to the Executive Committee for decision, as to whether such person may or may not be admitted to membership of any Member Club.
- (k) Any person found by his/her Club or by the Executive Committee, of having made misrepresentations on any point in respect of sub-sections (i) and (ii) hereof shall be struck off the Roll of Member Clubs of which he/she may be a member; and shall not be admitted as a member of any Member Club for at least two years thereafter. Such misrepresentations shall not penalise the Club.
- (l) Where a Member is a Member of more than one Member Club and is registered through such Clubs with the Union, the Executive Committee may, in its sole discretion, waive payment of the registration fees and subscriptions arising out of the Member being a Member of more than one Member Club.

HONORARY LIFE MEMBERS

9. (Bis) The Executive Committee in its sole discretion, may bestow Honorary Life Membership on any member in recognition of his significant contribution to Shore Angling and the furtherance of the aims and objects of the UNION. An Honorary Life Member shall have all the rights and obligations of a member in terms of the Constitution, save that no registration fees, subscriptions or other dues levied by the UNION from time to time on its members shall be payable in respect of an Honorary Life Member.

RECOGNISED BODIES

10. (a) The UNION shall recognise and affiliate to the National Controlling Body for Shore Angling within the Republic of South Africa, and the National Sports Congress (Southern KwaZulu Natal).

PUBLIC BODIES

(See Clause 8 (h))

AMATEUR STATUS AND CONTRAVENTIONS THEREOF

11. (a) Definition of Amateur Angler:- "Amateur Angler" for all purposes of this Constitution shall mean a person who captures fish for recreation, pleasure or sport, and in keeping with the Angling rules and regulations of this UNION.
- (b) "Amateur Angling" shall mean the sport of the capture of fish by amateur anglers as organised by the UNION and governed by this Constitution.
- (c) Contraventions: It shall be a contravention of, and an offence under, this Constitution, for any member of a Member Club to cease to be an amateur angler as defined by this constitution.
Every case of such contravention or offence shall be dealt with in the first instance by the Member Club of which the offender is a member. Immediately upon a decision being arrived at by it, such Club shall transmit to the Honorary Secretary of the UNION, a certified copy of its findings and of the evidence and proceedings.
- (d) The Honorary Secretary of the UNION shall submit such proceedings to the next meeting of the Executive Committee, which shall at that or a subsequent meeting, confirm or otherwise the proceedings. In the event of the proceedings being confirmed, the Executive Committee shall have power forthwith to take such disciplinary action, as it may deem fit in respect of the offender, including the right to expel such member from the UNION.

MANAGEMENT

12. (a) The business of the UNION shall be conducted by an Annual General Meeting and Special General Meetings and between Meetings by the Executive Committee.
- (b) Dates: The post-mark of the Government Post Office shall be taken at all times as the date on which all communications, notices and such like are sent or have been sent, either by or to the UNION.
- (c) Purchases: The purchase of goods and or services on behalf of the UNION shall be authorised by the Executive Committee only.

A written order must be issued for all such purchases and signed by the Secretary and Chairman of the meeting, which authorised such purchase.

Only accounts which quote the official order number will be recognised by the UNION.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETINGS

13. (a) Meetings shall be convened by the Executive Committee and held no later than July of each year.
- (b) Notice and Agenda: The Honorary Secretary shall forward to each Member Club a notice of meeting and the agenda thereof which shall give 14 days' notice of the Meeting. Member Clubs wishing to present items for the agenda shall deliver such matter in writing authenticated by resolution to the Honorary Secretary of the UNION before the June Executive Committee Meeting in each year.
- (c) Right of Attendance: All individual members of the UNION are entitled to attend with the right of speech and debate. They may not propose or second any motion or vote unless they are an accredited delegate of the Club.
- (d) Representation:
- (i) Each Member Club shall be entitled to one delegate who may propose or second any motion, provided however that delegates of Non Competitive Clubs shall not be entitled to vote on any motion in respect of Competition Rules. Names of Club delegates shall be given to the Honorary Secretary before the Meeting commences otherwise they may be debarred from voting.

- (ii) No Club shall be entitled to appoint a proxy to represent it at a General Meeting.
- (e) Voting Rights:
 - (i) Each accredited delegate shall have one vote only.
 - (ii) Members of the retiring Committee shall not have a vote by virtue of their office but if an accredited Club delegate, shall have full rights in the meeting.
 - (iii) Notwithstanding the provisions of (ii) the Chairman shall have a casting vote only.
- (f) Chairman: In the absence of the President, the Vice-president shall act as Chairman, otherwise the meeting shall elect a Chairman from members present. Such Vice-President or member acting as Chairman shall have a casting vote only.
- (g) Quorum: At any General Meeting one more than FIFTY PERCENT (50%) of the number of member Clubs shall form a quorum. In the absence of a quorum, the General Meeting shall be reconvened and at the reconvened meeting any number of member Clubs shall form a quorum.
- (h) Business:
 - (i) Notice of the meeting shall be read or by resolution be taken as read.
 - (ii) There shall be a roll call of delegates which shall determine the total number of votes that may be recorded on any motion and determine the existence of a Quorum.

See amendment to make additions to Section 19 (b) as proposed at the 25th Annual General Meeting of the KZNCAU dated 14 July 2019.

SELECTION OF TEAMS AND NOMINATIONS

21. (a) The Executive Committee shall in each year appoint a Technical Committee to perform the functions set out in Clause 4(e) hereof.
- (b) The Selection Committee shall consist of a Convenor, Technical Committee and Managers/Coaches of the previous year appointed by the KZNCAU Executive Committee. Managers and Coaches for the forth coming year be appointed by the Executive Committee.
- (c) If at any meeting of the Selection Committee two nominees receive equal votes for selection to fill the last position in a team, there shall be a re-vote in respect of the two nominees only.
- (d) The Convenor of the Selection Committee shall not have a casting vote.
- (e) All nominations for the selection shall be made by the nominee's Club and not by the nominee personally.
- (f) The Executive Committee shall appoint the Captain and Manager
- (g) It is the primary responsibility of the Selection panel to select the best eligible anglers for the various KwaZulu Natal Teams in terms of the protocol setout hereunder and without regard for personal prejudice or affiliation.
- (h) To qualify for selection, an angler must have consistently abided by SASCO's Code of Conduct during the three years prior to Team selections; (SASAA Constitution Appendix C -C2.2)
- (i) Trial Procedures: Juniors, Seniors and Ladies.
The KZNCAU will invite the Top Ranked anglers from the following Divisions: Current Protea anglers in the division for which they have nominated are automatically selected provided that they are still actively participating competitively.
- Juniors – Top 18 (Combined Ranking)
Seniors A – Top 36
Seniors B – Top 18
Ladies – Top 12
Masters – Top 12
Grand Masters – Top 12
- (j) Nominations for Managers and Coaches
Managers and Coaches for 2018/9 representative teams to be appointed by the Executive Committee.
- (k) KZNCAU Three Year Ranking
The Three Year Ranking, provided by the Competition Secretary of the KZNCAU based on the following calculation
The Combined sum of the Postal and the Common Venue Rank for 2016, 2017 & 2018 split 30% Postal and 70% Common Venue, weighed 2016-20%, 2017-30% and 2018-50%.
The historical intention of the Technical Committee is to continue to favour the Common Venue Competition weighting due to the nature and format of these (Common Venue) Competitions. While the current split is considered optimum, this is not prescriptive and may be reviewed annually.
- (k) Trials
Trials are convened for all divisions, except for Grand Masters. Notice for trials and invitations be sent out by the Union's Secretary.
Non-attendance at Trials without notification resulted in no points. For non-attendance with apologies and just reason, anglers will get 70% of previous trials result scored for that division
All anglers except current Senior A Team Anglers, as defined in 2 i are required to attend trials.
- 1 Extended Invitations.
- i The KZNCAU may resolve to extend invitations to anglers beyond the threshold should there be insufficient attendees.
- ii Clubs may be allowed to motivate for anglers outside the threshold to attend trials, which motivation must be acceptable and Constitutional (Clause 26(K) of the Constitution).
- 2 Automatic Selection
As a further deciding factor in determining the selection of teams it was resolved to use the SASAA Three Year Ranking to determine the top performing anglers ranked over that period. SASAA considers top ranked anglers over three years from each division out of a prescribed number. e. g. Seniors top 18, Masters Top12. The KZNCAU selection process allows for an automatic selection on a similar basis.
- i The Current Proteas in the division and discipline for which they have nominated are automatically selected provided that they are still actively participating competitively.
- ii The thresholds applied is as follows;
- | | |
|---------------|---------------------------|
| Senior A | Top 36 (Representing KZN) |
| Senior B | Top 18 |
| Ladies | Top 12 |
| Juniors | Top 18 (combined ranking) |
| Masters | Top 12 |
| Grand Masters | Top 12 |
- iii Where an anglers's rank is based on less than three years at SASAA level, his/her SASAA ranking shall be considered accordingly to determine performance within the threshold so as not to prejudice top performers who have not yet had the opportunity to establish a three year history.
- iv An angler must be actively competing in the KZNCAU during the current year to qualify for automatic selection
- iiiv Automatic selection with reference to clauses N2 and N2 iii above shall not preclude such anglers from attending trials.
- iiiv If an angler has fished at least twice in the previous three years in the Nationals of the applicable division for which they are nominating and is not ranked amongst the top anglers on the SASAA three year ranking, he/she may be excluded from the team regardless of other criteria.
The thresholds determined in this regard;
- | | |
|---------------|---------------------------|
| Senior A | Top 100 |
| Senior B | Top 50 |
| Ladies | Top 40 |
| Juniors | Top 50 (combined ranking) |
| Masters | Top 40 |
| Grand Masters | Top 40 |
